

Contents

Foreword	8
New Tank Assembly Plant	11
German tank production up to 1939	11
Expansion of tank production in Austria	12
Project "Toy Factory"	15
Transition from "Toy Factory" to "Nibelungenwerk".....	19
Plant Facilities	23
1939: Construction begins	23
1940: Construction work encounters problems	26
1941: Completing extension phase I	33
1942: Completing extension phase II	38
1943/1944: Extension phases III and IV.....	40
Unrealized building projects	43
Construction and set-up costs.....	44
Description of the individual plant facilities.....	45
Plant Housing and Barracks Camp	69
New residential estates change the face of St. Valentin.....	69
Herzograd residential development.....	71
Langenhart housing development.....	81
Accommodation outside of St. Valentin	92
Forced labor and prisoner of war camps.....	93
St. Valentin satellite concentration camp	99
Management Constellation	105
Management build-up by the Director General of the SDP.....	105
Works directors and general management	108
Nibelungenwerk GmbH	112
Complete takeover by the SDP.....	118
Working Conditions	123
Workforce.....	123
Deployment of concentration camp inmates	143
Supervision by Plant Security.....	146
Enforced conformity by the German Labor Front.....	151
Occupational health and safety, social conditions	154
Working hours, wages and salaries	165